The campaign now begun will be the most exciting, as it unquestionably is the most important, the country has ever witnessed. The life of the nation and the liberties of the people depend upon the result. A triumph of the Radicals will result in the lation and ruin of the South, and the placing of an ignorant and brutal race in all posiand pisces of honor and trust, to the exclusion of the white race. The government must be wrested from the thieves and plunderers who now have control of it and power placed in the hands of a party pledged | na, and will give the State to Seymour and to give peace to a distracted country, and to make it Blair. REPUPLICAN VICE AND CORRUPTION-THE PRICE OF THE "TROOLY LOIL"—HOW THE VOTES SELL— THE CANDIDATES-PERSONAL SKETCHES-THE DINNERS AND DRINKING BOUTS-PROMISES AND HARD CASH, &C., &C., F.C.

COLUMIA, S. C., July To. A spectacle is now on exhibition in Columbia, such as never has been witnessed in South Carolina-a spectacle, every phase of which typifies the utterly unprincipled character of the Republican party, and illustrates the frightful depth of desecure respect as its "trooly loil" members. In the language of a Northern tourist, who lingers here for a day or two to enjoy the senatorial fight as a looker-on, "it is the most infamous political contest that ever disgraced a public bar, and do their best to create a pleasfree country; if this be the beginning of the end, God help the people of South Carolina !" Here is a Legislature composed of one hundred and twenty-four members of the House of Representatives, and thirty-three members of the Senate. Of the former, forty-eight only are white, of the latter nine are colored. Of Democrats here are, in the House fourteen, and in the Senate seven; making an aggregate of seventy-two white and eighty-five colored legislators of South Carolina. The grave duty devolved upon these bodies is the choice of two United States Senators. One has already been elected with a degree of unanimity which indicated preconcert of action and a mutual understanding. The other is yet to be chosen, and it is the wicked, unparalleled and unprincipled means employed to secure this result that has disgusted Radicals themselves, and alarmed them for the safety of their party. Bribery and corruption are in the ascendant. No member can predict the hour when he may not be called upon with the offer of a douceur varying in value from two dollars and a half to an indefinite amount of promise, for his vote. While I write the bids are going on, and as if to magnetize the sense of hearing, the chink cognize only the face of the carpet-bagger and stranger. The candidates have already been frequently announced. They are F. A. Sawyer, Esq., Coljectof of the Internal Revenue for Charleston Dr. A. G. Mackey, the Collector of Customs and Rev. Mansfield French-whose profession cannot be accurately ascertained. No one outside of the party will deny that all three are Republicans. And yet the singular issue is made against Mr. Sawver that because he is a gentleman, recognized as such, and the recipient of some kind attentions from those who do not agree with him politically, he must necessarily be a wretched Democrat. On the other hand, Dr. Mackey has a host of enemies who declare that he belongs to the "Customhouse ring" of Charleston; that he and his family rule the Republican party of the State, and have absorbed the best of its fat offices; that he is arbitrary, dictatorial, passionate, and a somewhat extensive demagogue; that he has not the abiding love of all the Radicals, and has 'suffered' so profitably as to have made enough to retire to the peaceful shades of private life; consequently that he will not be acceptable to the majority. The Rev. M. F., on the other hand, is looked upon with distrust; first, be-

POLITICAL.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald dutifully plays follow my leader, and throws as much cold water as he can carry upon the Democratic nominations. He write on the 11th as follows:

It is rarely that so great a disappointment is experienced in the political affairs of the coun-try as that which has overtaken the Conservaexperienced in the political affairs of the country as that which has overtaken the Conservative portion of the people in regard to the Democratic nomination for President, and it is seldom that a national disappointment has been so generally and so pointedly expressed.

So far as the Conservative and Democratic citizens of Washington are concerned, the selection of the Democratic Convention for President has called forth almost universal condemnation. Predictions of signal defeat to the party, quite as inglorious as that sustained by McClellan, are made on every hand, not only by the Radicals, but by the moderate Democrats and Republicans.

Although grieved and disappointed at the unfortunate result, it is said the President will give his support to the choice of the Convention. The members of the Cabinet, it is also said, agree with the President in his views of the nominations. In fact, nobody approves of them except those who were engaged in the rebellion and their sympathizers.

Many of those who have hitherto announced themselves as being opposed to Grant as a Republican champion now turn to that silent soldier with all his Radical vows thick upon him as the more acceptable of the two candidates, and hope that when he is elected he will be found true to his life-long Conservative principles, and that he will interpose his hand to avert the most dangerous of the Radical

ADJOURNMENT. ed to the sanctified surroundings of the festive

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times, under date of the 13th, says:

York Times, under date of the 13th, says:

The necessity of a speedy adjournment of Congress for political reasons is more and more imperative every day. The longer Congress remains now, the more danger of blunders which the Republican party will have to choulder in the campaign. To-day was a fair sample of what may be expected any day henceforth, but particularly on Mondays. As stated last night, Mr. Butler was bent on getting up the subject of taxing bonds again, and he finally persuaced Ashley. of Nevale, to be his catepaw, and introduced a bill to that effect when his State should be called. When the bill came in. Butler was on the alert, and the bill came in, Butler was on the alert, and immediately moved to put it on its passage. But he was immediately hoisted by his own petard. He had fixed up a thing, but its re-ception was also fixed up. The Speaker caused the rule to be read, which provides that no bill which is in its nature a tax or a charge upon the people can be considered the same day it is introduced. "I move to suspend the rules," quoth the adroit Butler. "That cannot be done during the morning hour," quoth the Speaker. Whereupon Butler subsided, in wilder discussed. evident disgust.

The particulars given by us yesterday concerning the movement for the formation of a new party by those disaffected with the nomination of Seymour and Blair, attracted no little attention, and the matter was the subject of general discussion last night. Many of the Democratic politicians are disposed to treat to Mr. Sawyer. The Democrats are holding I learn that many of the Republicans are greatly incensed against Governor Scott, be-Democratic politicians are disposed to treat the movement slightingly, as the effervescence of a few sore-head partisans. They say that the attempt will not enlist a baker's dozen of the Democracy, or those disposed to act with the Democracy, and that it will not be heard of in a fortnight. We are inclined to think, after careful inquiry, and taking into consideration the character of the men engaged in this bolt from the New York nominations and platform, that it will no do for the Democracy to underrete its importance. The Democratic managers may find it to their advantage to wink at the formation of a third party, in order to prevent the disaffected from going over to Grant and Colfax, swelling the ranks of their adversaries after a dangerous sort. protect the interests of the State, and that no default of his shall permit the State to lose any WEDNESDAY, July 15.—Mr. Whittemore, from the committee appointed to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate would meet them to-day to proceed, in joint meeting, to the election of senators of the United States, reported that the committee had discharged the duty assigned to it. saries after a dangerous sort.

Thurlow Weed's paper, the New York Commercial Advertiser, pooh-poohs the matter, and Washington dispatches just now abound in Washington dispatches just now abound in rumors of the organization of a third party, with Chase at its head. We are told, among other things, that a committee of New York gentlemen have waited upon the Chief Justice and asked him to stand as an independent candidate; that many Democrats, diseatisfied, with the Tammany nominations, are desirous of voting for him, and that "alienated" Republicans who cannot go to Seymour and of voting for him, and that "alenated" Republicans, who cannot go to Seymour and Blair would gladly go to Chase and Dix. We discredit all of the reports. Judge Chase would unquestionably like to revenge himself upon the Tammany magnates for throwing him so unceremoniously overboard, after he had gone back on his previous record and cast himself at their feet a suppliant for office. But the Chief Justice has had too much experience o know the fate which invariably attends third party movements. Such a movement at best could only throw the Presidential election into longress, when Grant would of course be

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, writing on the 11th, says : York Herald, writing on the litti, says:

Very many Conservatives speak favorably of running a third ticket, and most of them mention Chase and Hancock as the most popular names to be placed upon it. Some doubts are expressed about the advisability of placing three candidates in the field, owing to the danger that attends it of throwing the election into the House of Representatives.

This movement is not confined to mere talk, but measures have already been adopted towards carrying it into effect. At least there plan. He says:

Another suggestion which is made by Conservatives, and which seems to be gaining ground, is that a strong effort should be made to secure, at the earliest day possible, a change in the Presidential candidate by bringing every infinence to bear upon Mr. Seymour to induce influence to bear upon Mr. Seymour to induce him to withdraw from the field. The plan suggested for supplying the vacancy he would thus create is that the National Democratic Com-mittee shall hold a meeting, nominate Chief Justice Chase on the ticket with Gen. Blair, or some Eastern man, issue an address to the Desome Eastern man, issue an address to the Democrac: of the country, urging support of the nomination, and calling upon the States to ratify it in State conventions. This could be done, it is claimed, and the nomination ratified before the middle of August, leaving ample time to organize the forces for the campaign so effectually that the popular ticket of Chase and Blair, or some one else as before suggested, would meet with the most overwhelming success cess.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing on the 13th, two days later, rather confirms this view. He says:

later, rather confirms this view. He eays:

Various and contradictory rumors are afloat in this city relative to a third party movement, the latest of which is that a committee composed mainly of New York men, called on Mr. Chase, to-day, to get his views on the subject. It is reported that they assured him that they have positive strength in different sections of the Union, and that thirty days will develope a strong party which will willingly support the Chief Justice on a platform embodying the views contained in his letter to Mr. John J. Cisco. It is also said that they held forth the hope that Seymour is anxious to withdraw, and that he wants but a reasonable excuse to do so, as he does not imagine that the Democratic party can win in the coming contest. It is reported that Mr. Chase replied that he had not committed himself in any way to the New Yors platform, and that he would be guided by his friends. Your correspondent has no means of verifying these stories, on account of the leteness of the heaver and he does has no means of verifying these stories, on ac-count of the lateness of the hour; and he does not attach much importance to them. They are merely reproduced as the chit-chat of the politicians.

The Providence Journal's Washington cor respondence, dated July 12, contains the fol-

There is an undercurrent movement among politicians here, which it is difficult to reach, but which disturbs the surface just enough to but which disturbs the surface just enough to indicate its course. That movement is still in embryo; but I think its purpose has been devised near enough to warrant the publication of the fact. Ever since the Democratic nomination the disappointed Democratic houghout the country, incensed by the action of the New York Convention in throwing overboard such men as Hendricks, Chase, Hancock and others for Seymour and Blair, have been canvassing the chances of placing a third candidate in the field, and have been trying for two or three days to induce certain disappointed Republicans to join them, with Chase as leader and candidate. It is argued that a third candidate could take a majority of the Democratic votes in the country, and enough of the Republicans who have been life-long friends of the Chief Justice to carry the electoral vote. All the indications point to this as the course likely to be pursued. It is very certain, from the action of the leaders here, that there is a wide-spread dissatisfaction among the Democrate, and of the read of the course to the will have spread diseates act; that there is a water-spread diseates action among the Democrate, and if Chase will consent to run he will have an opportunity. If he will not, then Grant and Colfar will have most of the votes among the sore-headed Democrats, and the balance will take no part in the election on either side.

The alterations have been done so artistically, that it is difficult to teil the spurious tically, that it is difficult to teil the spurious from the genuine. The frauds embrace more or less Fort Wayne, Michigan Southern, Rock Island, Pittsburg, New York Central, Erie and Pacific Mail. The aggregate is supposed to be from $500,000 to $1,000,'50; but the real extent it is difficult to get at, as the brokers who have been swindled naturally are disinclined to tell the exact amount of their losses lest it might impair their credit. The railroad companies are also keeping very quiet in the matter.

are also keeping very quiet in the matter.

Further altered certificates on Erie and Pacific Mail were discovered this afternoon. It is certainly very singular that the Board of Brokers have taken no official action in the matter. The prevailing opinion in the street is, the least they ought to do is to offer a large reward for the capture of the guilty party or parties.

The Orangemen are celebrating the battle of Aughram in Jones' Woods to-day. There is no shooting, but plenty of pionicking.

No new developments in the bricklayer's strike. The bosses were in conference again on Saturday afternoon, but did nothing except to houlding a step to be building. to talk over prospects. Among the buildings upon which labor is suspended is the St. John's Chapel enlargement, for which an appropriation had been made by Trinity Vestry of forty thousand dollars. The contractor had enthousand dollars. The contractor had engaged to have it completed by the first of September. All hands—employers and employed alike—are watching with much interest the result of the eight-hours' strike among the coal miners of Pennsylvania, and the dispatches from Pottsville are read with cager interest.

There is but little activity in business circles to-day, owing to the extreme cultriness of the weather, and to the absence of so many leading merchants, bankers and brokers in the country. Money is in moderate demand at 4@ country. Money is in moderate demand at 4@ 5 per cent.; discounts, 6@7.

An opinion is gaining ground that we shall see a more active market sooner than most people anticipate. The heavy falling off in the l-gal-tender reserves, as seen in last week's bank statement, indicates that the demands of the country for currency to move its crops are already beginning to be presented. A PLAN TO RUIN SAVANNAH.—The Savannah Republican says that there is a plot afoot in venneh four miles, so as to give its control to negroes. The principal movers in this shameful trick are the negroes Bradley and Hopkins.

THINGS IN THE STATE.

— Capt. Wm. Haynie, one of the oldest and most efficient and popular of the conductors of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad, died at Cartersville on Monday.

-On Thursday night, a dwelling house, be longing to Mr. Isaac Bierfield, in the town of Helena, Newberry distric', was discovered to be on fire, and in a short time thereafter was entirely consumed.

-Chester has been blessed with several fine showers, but a hot sun and three or four dry days has again rendered the earth quite thirsty. The Standard regrets to learn that some portions of the county are much in need of the fructifying element, not having had a drop in five weeks.

—Wofford College commencement took place on Tuesday. Professor DuPre delivered the annual address on Wednesday. Addresses were delivered by Ellis B. Cannon, Barham W. Fos-ter, Wm. Kirkland and R. O. Smart, upon whom degrees were conferred. The valedic-tory was spoken by Dr. Smart, of Beaufort.

—After a lapse of nine weeks of dry and scorching weather, says the Newberry Herald, a heavy rain has fallen. The baked condition of the ground however, allowed but a slight relief to dying vegetation. It is one week since the shower fell, and another is anxiously looked for. The corn and cotton in some portions of the district are suffering, while in others they do well. A general rain, and good seasons from this time, though much corn is dwarfed and retarded, would insure to this district a good yield. Gardens in and around town are almost past hope.

—The Columbia Phœnix says: Alderman Greenfield, as we are reliably informed, prepared a respectful memorial to the Legislature, requesting an order for an election for municiple officers at an early day. This memorial was signed by all the white members except Alderman Remsen: and by none of the colored members except Alderman Taylor. What reason the objecting members assign we cannot conceive, as it was generally understood that the present officials were to be but temporarily in authority. The attention of the Legislature is called to the matter.

THE NEW MARYLAND SENATOR.—Governor Swann, of Maryland, has appointed William Pinckney Whyte United State senator for the unexpired term of Hon. Reverdy Johnson, recently appointed Minister to England. The term expires on the 4th of March next.

Mr. Whyte is a native of Baltimore, and graduated, we believe, at Princeton, and is a leading member of the Maryland bar. He is in the prime of life—between forty-five and fifty—and is considered, at least b those politically opposed to him, as one of the most able men in the Democratic party of his native State.

Senetor Whyte has always been an active politician of the extreme Democratic school, has several times represented Baltimore in the State Legisture and for several years was Comptroller of the State Treasury, in which position his friends claim that he exhibited considerable financial ability. He was defeated for the House of Representatives by Hon. J. Morrison Harris during the rebellion he took but little active part in political affairs. Last winter he was a candidate for United States senator, but withdrew after the first ballot, and was a member of the late constitutional convention. THE MOST PERFECT IBON TONIC .- HEGE

s as difficult to extinguish a raging fever as a raging fire: but you can prevent a conflagration by render ing your dwelling fire-proof, and you can prevent an attack of fever by invigorating and purifying your "house of clay." The "outside pressure" upon the constitution and the vital powers at this season is tremendous. Every pore of the millions which cover the surface of the body is a drain upon its substance and its strength. To meet this depletion-to keep up the stamina under such a constant outflow of disselving flash-tonic and invigorant is absolutely necessary; and time, that tries all things, has proved that HOS TETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS import a degree of strength and resistant power to the over-taxed vital forces, which is unattainable by any other known means. The effect of this inestimable veretable preparation is to increase the appetite, accelerate digestion, tone the secretive organs, give firmness to the nerves, purify the blood, cheer the spirits, and, by thus rallying all the forces of the body, enable it to defy the enery, ting influence of the heat, and rass triumphantly through the trying ordeal of the summer months. As a safeguard against epidemics, and preventive of the feeblenees, lassitude and prostru on, of which so many thensands complain at this season, it has a national repulation founded on twenty-five years of uninterrupted and unequalled

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH YOU This is the familiar question put to every invalid. In many cases the answer is, "I don't know exactly, but I don't feel well." Look at the countenance of the man or woman who makes this reply, and you will generally find that the eyes are dull and lustre less, the complexion sallow, the cheeks flaccid, and the whole expression of the face dejected. Interro-gate the invalid more closely, and you will discover that constipation, the result of a discretered stomach and a torpid liver, is at the bottom of the mischief. "That's what's the matter." Whoever has experionced the effects of TARRANI'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT in such cases, need not to be told to recommend it as a remedy.
